

OLYMPIC STAR SHATTERS WORLD RECORD. Two snaps of Miss Charlotte Boyle, the wonderful New York swimmer, national champion at 50 and 100 yards, who broke the world's record for the 150 yards free style at Brighton Beach last Saturday by covering the distance in 1 minute 49 4-5 seconds, beating the old record by 3 4-5 seconds.
Sport-Commercial

Left—NOT TWO MARTIANS IN DEATH COMBAT, but a friendly contest between a couple of expert quarterstaff fighters, men of England's army physical training staff, at the royal tournament in London. To decide the winner the combatants fought twice daily for two weeks.
Keystone

A LONG BEACH LIFESAV-ER. Gilda Gray, queen of shimmyers, who is one of the headliners in the "Snapshots of 1920," spends Sunday at Long Island's popular beach and, dolled up in a life guard's outfit, undertakes to teach the fair bathers the shimmy swimming stroke.
Central News

"MICKEY" AND "DAR-LING," mascots of Troop K, of the New York State Constabulary, stationed at White Plains. Though rivals for the attention and favor of the troopers, the mischievous monkey and graceful greyhound are the best of pals.
International

Right—A $300 KISS. Miss Sigrid Holmquist, the "Mary Pickford of Sweden," pretty flower girl at the Italian garden party held at Roslyn, L. I., last Saturday for the Free Milk for Italy Fund, delivering a kiss purchased at auction by Frank C. Henderson, the afternoon's host.
Paul Thompson

Right—THE OLD AND THE NEW REPUBLICAN CHIEF-TAINS. An intimate snap of Postmaster General Will H. Hays, retiring chairman of the Republican National Committee and his successor, John T. Adams, of Iowa, recently elected at a meeting of the committee in Washington. L.

TWIN COLTS and their mother, property of a breeder at Stoke-on-Trent, England. Twin foals are scarce and only in very rare instances do both survive.
Underwood

CARPENTIER'S FIGHTING FACE. Gone is the familiar smile of the French idol as the European pugilistic champion and challenger for Dempsey's world title listens in the corner of his training ring at Manhasset to the whispered words of advice and caution from the wily Francois Deschamps, his manager.
Gilliams

